04/25/2018		MINUTE ORDER: In light of 74 the parties' April 23, 2018 joint status report and the parties' previous status reports, the further search and production in this case shall proceed as follows. First, with respect to the remand email search, the parties have agreed to an additional search of the emails for the following terms: Second Mile, Mustokoff, Baldwin, Raykovitz, Genovese, and Courtney. See ECF No. 74, at 2. While Plaintiff requests that Defendant conduct further searches with additional terms, the Court concludes that no further terms are needed than those the Defendant has agreed to use. In light of the expanded searches that Defendant has agreed to conduct, including the search it has already conducted using the terms "Penn State" and "PSU," the Court's concerns at summary judgment have been addressed. Ultimately, Defendant's search need only be reasonably calculated to find responsive documents, not guaranteed to find every single responsive document. See, e.g., SafeCard Servs., Inc. v. SEC, 926 F.2d 1197, 1201 (D.C. Cir. 1991) (an agency need only show that its search "was reasonably calculated to discover the requested documents, not whether it actually uncovered every document"). The Court finds that together the search terms already used and those Defendant has agreed to use result in a sufficiently broad search that is reasonably calculated to find the requested documents. Defendant shall complete its remand searches of the emails using the agreed-upon search terms by May 25, 2018. The parties shall file a joint status report proposing a schedule for any production from the remand email search by June 1, 2018.

		Second, with respect to Defendant's concerns regarding victims' identities, the Court has sealed ECF Nos. 73 and 59. The parties are directed to file public versions of these documents with the necessary redactions. The parties should notify the Court of any additional documents that need to be similarly treated. Third, with respect to the inadvertently overlooked documents, the following production schedule shall apply: Defendant shall produce all responsive, non-exempt records by April 25, 2019. It shall make rolling productions to Plaintiff every 60 days, beginning June 25, 2018, and shall place the first priority for its review and productions on the first three categories of documents listed numerically on page 7 of 74 the parties' April 23, 2018 status report. The parties shall file joint status reports every 60 days updating the Court on the status of production, with the first such report due by July 25, 2018. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 4/25/2018. (lccrc2) (Entered: 04/25/2018)

09/24/2019		MINUTE ORDER: At the June 13, 2019 status conference, the Court directed the parties to meet and confer in a good faith effort to narrow the number of the "inadvertently overlooked" records that require processing and to file a status report within one week summarizing the outcome of that meeting to enable the Court to enter a revised production order. The parties have filed nothing. The Court therefore ORDERS the parties to file the previously-ordered report, along with a proposed revised production schedule, on or before October 1, 2019. Further disregard of the Court's orders may result in the imposition of sanctions. So Ordered. Signed by Judge Christopher R. Cooper on 9/24/19. (lccrc1) (Entered: 09/24/2019)
